The Namibian Ports Authority welcomes the MS Europa 2

About 498 visitors, including crewmembers from across the world, disembarked from the MS Europa 2 passenger vessel, currently docked at the Port of Walvis Bay. The vessel, which will overnight at the Port city, arrived from the Port of Lüderitz around 07h00 this morning and will depart tomorrow evening heading to Port Elizabeth, South Africa.

The entity expects to roll out its red carpet to more passenger vessels during the upcoming months at both its ports.
